b. FARS Record Retirement

NO ✓ During the period 1-16 November 1984, the Federal Automated Requisitioning System underwent its annual retirement and compression exercise. A total of 5,440 records were moved in approximately 30 hours.

NO ✓ For comparison purposes, the retirement done in May 1984 took approximately 46 hours to retire and compress some 5,600 records. The discrepancy between May's retirement time and November's is explained by the fact that a new history tape was started with the November retirement, thereby allowing the records to move over at a faster rate.
